

The key aim of the Confucius Institute at QMUL is to strengthen the links the two universities and their local communities by facilitating understanding and engagement between stakeholders through:

- Student & staff exchanges, academic collaboration, and joint research;
- Support for local Schools and Colleges;
- Working with local businesses.

QMUL Confucius Institute

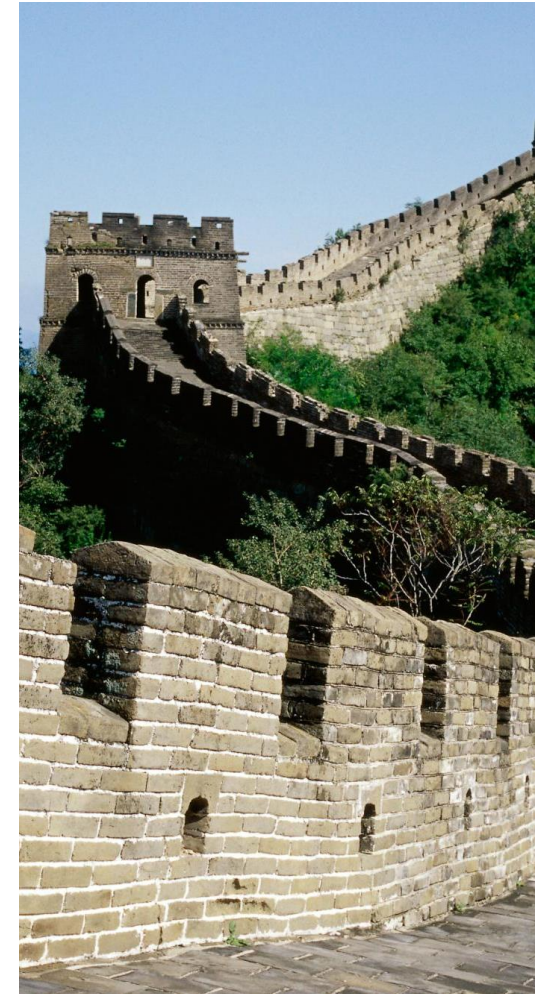

Confucius Institute
Queen Mary, University of London
Arts Two Building, Room 2.16
Mile End Road, London
E1 4NS
Email: o.begum@qmul.ac.uk

Website: <https://bit.ly/3YXv6fh>

QMUL CONFUCIUS INSTITUTES 'CHINA OPPORTUNITY' SUMMER CAMP 2025

Requirements

Students must complete a 20hr Chinese Mandarin course (plus 20hrs self study) followed by a HSK assessment which will be provided for by the QMUL Confucius Institute as part of the programme (dates tbc).

Students can use websites such as BBC to study Mandarin on their own.

Registration Deadline: 20th March 2025- 6.00pm.

A non- refundable deposit of £375 to be paid by 20th March 2025.

Summer camp details

QMUL Confucius Institute will be running a summer camp from 29th June- 12th July 2025 together with Beijing University of Post and Telecommunications.

Students will spend two weeks in Beijing. You will learn about the China of today; attend cultural performances, such as Chinese opera and acrobatics; go on excursions, such as visiting the Great Wall of China; study Chinese language; participate in Chinese cultural activities, such as Tai Chi and many many more.

Accommodation and meals will be provided for.

Programme details

- Summer camp will be in 29th June- 12th July 2025 Cost: All of the internal transportation in China; accommodation; 3 meals a day; scheduled excursions; cultural performances; guest speakers; Mandarin language & culture classes; pre-departure HSK exam preparation classes in London. You only need to pay for the return flights from London; travel insurance & visa (price subject to change depending on flights costs).
- Cost does not include: Return flights to China, personal spending money; transport to and from London Heathrow.
- Please note: the schedule is very full and students are unlikely to have free time for personal visits.
- Please note: We will need students passports for up to one week in order to apply for a visa (if you want us to apply for the visa for you). Passports must be valid for at least 6 months from time of flying.

Summer Camp will allow you to discover the China of today: economy, culture, language, and history. It will increase your knowledge of the country and the opportunities China can give you.